Alan Amron, Pro Se Plaintiff

v

The United States Postal Service, Defendant

(SJ)

Complainant

~~Plaintiff~~ Plaintiff Demands
TRIAL BY JURY

FEUERSTEIN, S

TOMLINSON, M

To the above-named Defendant:

You are hereby summoned and required to serve upon Alan Amron, Pro Se plaintiff, whose address is 474 Fulton Avenue Hempstead, New York 11550, an answer to the complaint which is herewith served upon you, within 60 days after service of this summons upon you, exclusive of the day of service. If you fail to do so, judgment by default will be taken against you for the relief demanded in the complaint.

Clerk of Court.

[Seal of the U.S. District Court]

Dated 5/1/07

(This summons is issued pursuant to Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure)

If the United States or an officer or agency thereof is a defendant, the time to be inserted as to it is 60 days.

(As amended Dec. 29, 1948, eff. Oct. 20, 1949.)

Complaint Of Negligence

1. Allegation of Jurisdiction

(a) Jurisdiction founded on diversity of citizenship and amount.

Plaintiff is a citizen of the United States having it's principal place of residence in the State of New York, and defendant is a corporation incorporated under the laws of the United States having its principal place of business in the State of New York. The matter in controversy exceeds $25,000.00 dollars, exclusive of interest and costs, the sum specified by 28 U.S.C. § 1332.

(b) Jurisdiction founded on the existence of a Federal question.

The action arises under [the United States Code 39, Section 3661]; [title 39 part IV Chapter 36 Subchapter IV Statute (a), as hereinafter more fully appears.

(c) Jurisdiction founded on the existence of a question arising under particular statutes.

The action arises under the Act of 39 USC, Part IV, Chapter 36, Subchapter IV Sec 3661 Statute (a) as hereinafter more fully appears.

(a) "The Postal Service shall develop and promote adequate and efficient postal services."

2. On April 14, 2007, I Pro Se Plaintiff Alan Amron mailed an Express Mail overnight (EQ 91 6118 982 US) large corrugated box of one of a kind toy prototypes and samples, (see picture of contents attached here as Exhibit A) weighing 14 pounds 8 ounces, to a model shop named "TOTAL CONCEPTS" at 229 Western Avenue Unit #3 Essex Massachusetts 01929. (See Express mail receipt attached here as Exhibit B)

3. On April 19, 2007, I pro se plaintiff Alan Amron did an on line United States Postal Services tracking of said Express Mailed box to find it had been negligently sent to Essex England by gross negligence on the part of the postal service. (see attached here as Exhibit C)

4. On April 22, 2007, I pro se plaintiff Alan Amron received a letter from the United States Postal Service stating they were "...unable to locate any delivery information in our records regarding your item number EQ91 6118 98US..." (See this letter in the attached Exhibit D) After receiving this notice pro se plaintiff Alan Amron spoke directly to the postmasters at the Hempstead (Kevin Ryme), Hicksville (Bob Moskowitz) and Woodbury (Joesph) post offices asking what they were going to do about my personal miss shipped by the United States Post Office personal valuable property, which we all knew was in Essex Britain. They said they sent out emails to England and got no responses. There was no further help or words from anyone.

5. On April 25, 2007, I pro se plaintiff Alan Amron again tried to track the package on the United States Postal Services website, with the same result, the package delivered to Great Britain on April 16, 2007. No further information is on this package. (See the attached Exhibit E)

6. As a result of the Defendants gross negligence in sending a large box weighing 14 pounds 8 ounces to another country not even listed on the shipping label, the plaintiff was financially damaged, and incurred expenses for trying desperately to have the one of a kind prototype models rebuilt in time for the scheduled presentations to toy companies, in the sum of twenty five thousand dollars.

Wherefore the pro se plaintiff demands judgment against defendant in the sum of $25,000.00 dollars along with additional related travel and legal costs.

Respectfully submitted on this 1st day of May 2007 by:

Alan Amron
